We at Clanrye Group aim to be an inclusive and supportive organisation. As per the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, a person is considered to have a disability if he/she has “a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on a person’s ability to carry out normal day to day activities.” Please note it is the effect of the impairment, without treatment, which determines if an individual meets this definition of disability.

Do you consider that you meet this definition of disability?

YES

NO

Are there reasonable adjustments that we could make that would enable you enjoy a volunteering role with us? If yes please specify:
